

EST.  1976

DUCKHORN®

PORTFOLIO

ALEX RYAN

President & Chief Executive Officer - Duckhorn Portfolio

Since 1988, the visionary leadership of Alex Ryan has been instrumental in establishing and growing the Duckhorn Portfolio into one of the most admired wine portfolios in North America. During his illustrious tenure, Duckhorn has grown from a modest 15,000 cases and a few million dollars in revenue to one of the most highly respected and fastest growing luxury wine companies in the industry. Having come up through the ranks in the vineyard and production side of the company, Alex has earned a reputation as a “winemaker’s president,” known for his unwavering commitment to quality from grape to glass. At the same time, Alex’s leadership has established excellence in every area, from the vineyards to operations, sales and marketing. The result is a company that has earned notoriety for its exceptional wines, world-class estate properties and industry-leading sales and marketing team, as well as for the diversity of its well-positioned portfolio, which spans multiple appellations, brands, price-points and styles.

Alex moved to St. Helena in 1976, where he became friends with the son of his future mentor, Dan Duckhorn. He began working at Duckhorn part time during high school, and joined the company full time after earning his degree in viticulture from California State University at Fresno in 1988. As Duckhorn’s vineyard manager throughout the early ‘90s, and later as its vice president of vineyard and winery operations, Alex played an integral role in the growth of the company’s estate program, which now encompasses more than 700 acres of acclaimed vineyards in California’s Napa Valley, Sonoma County, Anderson Valley and Gavilan Mountains, and Washington State’s Red Mountain.

In 2000, Alex was made general manager and chief operations officer of the Duckhorn Portfolio, and in 2005 he was promoted to president, becoming the only person other than Dan Duckhorn to hold this position. In the years since, Alex unveiled new, state-of-the-art wineries for both Paraduxx and Goldeneye, successfully launched the Migration brand, featuring the first Chardonnay in the company’s three-decade history, rolled out an expanded Decoy line to great acclaim, established Canvasback in Washington State, and spearheaded the acquisition of Calera and Kosta Browne—all while achieving five-fold growth for the Duckhorn Portfolio.

Today, as president and CEO, Alex oversees a dedicated staff of nearly 300 employees. Working with his handpicked winemaking, vineyard development and executive teams, Alex is actively charting a course for the future of the Duckhorn Portfolio that honors its history of excellence, while never resting on past laurels. His groundbreaking cross-industry partnerships and his vision for strategic and sustainable growth have opened new avenues, and set new standards for trade and consumer engagement and satisfaction. While helping to pioneer the way successful modern wineries do business in the global marketplace, Alex has established the Duckhorn Portfolio as America’s preeminent luxury wine portfolio, with celebrated brands sold on five continents, and in more than 50 countries around the world. Based on these accomplishments, and many others, Alex was recognized for his visionary management style in 2013, when IntoWine.com honored him as one of the “Top 100 Most Influential People in the U.S. Wine Industry.” In 2016, in recognition of his leadership on behalf of the American wine industry, Alex was elected by his peers to represent Napa Valley on the board of the Wine Institute, and in 2017 the North Bay Business Journal named him “Best Winery CEO.”