

LORI BEAUDOIN

Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer – The Duckhorn Portfolio

Lori Beaudoin is Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of The Duckhorn Portfolio, producer of one of the finest portfolios of American luxury wine brands in the world. As CFO, Ms. Beaudoin is responsible for acquisitions, corporate capital structure, tax strategy, financial planning, reporting and analysis, accounting, and IT. During her tenure, Lori has been instrumental in transforming Duckhorn from a small, luxury wine producer into a luxury wine powerhouse. She has paved the way for topline and EBITDA growth of 10X and was instrumental in the 2016 successful company sale from GI Partners to TSG Consumer Partners and in the company’s 2017 and 2018 acquisitions of Calera and Kosta Browne wineries. In recognition of her transformational leadership, Lori was honored with the North Bay Business Journal’s CFO of the Year award in 2012.

Prior to joining The Duckhorn Portfolio, Ms. Beaudoin was the SVP, Chief Financial Officer of the Personal Care Products Category of Hain Celestial Group, Inc., a $4 billion organic products company. Ms. Beaudoin is a Certified Public Accountant and is an active member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Lori earned her Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of Idaho and currently resides in Santa Rosa, California with her husband and enjoys her leisure time cooking, volunteering and golfing.
