

KOSTA BROWNE

HISTORY The story of Kosta Browne echoes the iconic American dream—an evolution from a “tip-envelope” project to the production behind some of the industry’s most coveted Pinot Noir and Chardonnay wines. Kosta Browne was started by Dan Kosta and Michael Browne, two friends working at a local Santa Rosa restaurant who saved enough tip money to make their first barrel of Pinot Noir in 1997. Full of passion but short on capital, Michael developed relationships with key growers in Northern California, while Dan, along with the help of a third partner, Chris Costello, worked to market and sell the wines. The quality and popularity of Kosta Browne Pinot Noir increased rapidly, and in 2011, our 2009 Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir was named Wine of the Year by Wine Spectator. Today, the unparalleled success of Kosta Browne is a testament to our commitment to expressing California’s greatest Pinot Noir and Chardonnay regions.

APPELLATION SERIES

ONE-SIXTEEN RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY CHARDONNAY

The marine influence that follows the Russian River inland from the Pacific coast is a powerful attribute of this region. The fog helps keep nights cool and offers the vines a well-deserved break from daytime temperatures. The famed Chardonnay vineyards that we work with for this wine are located in the coolest parts of the Russian River Valley. Here, fruit can mature gracefully on the vine, which we find offers us more intensely focused flavors. The palate strikes a lovely balance between richness and bright acidity, with succulent orchard fruit flavors and a kiss of French oak carrying the wine to a long, shimmering finish.

STA. RITA HILLS PINOT NOIR

A microclimate that began a mere 20 million years ago is nothing short of a miracle. Tectonic plate movements caused mountains to rise out of the ocean, break off the plate, and rotate clockwise, creating one of the most defined transverse ranges on the Pacific Coast, with remnants of marine sediment deposited during the Miocene Epoch as the soil base. But what makes this area truly unique is the purely East/West maritime mouth that funnels cooling coastal fog and wind to the vines. Sta. Rita Hills is one of the world's best cool-climate growing regions of Pinot Noir. As captivating as it is delicious, this wine is robust and dynamic, with intense fruit and spice notes continuing throughout the palate, building to a complex and polished finish.

ANDERSON VALLEY PINOT NOIR

Sixty-five miles north of our winery in Sebastopol, CA, is the critically acclaimed AVA of Anderson Valley. This rural, unparalleled location has had a history of producing world-class wines. We sourced from a variety of vineyards within the appellation, creating an extensive representation of an Anderson Valley blend. Intense aromas of juicy black cherry, cranberry, and blueberry are enhanced by the expansively layered palate and uplifting acidity. An undeniable richness and beautiful texture draw the wine to a long finish, resulting in a signature Kosta Browne Pinot Noir.

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY PINOT NOIR

There are many differences between vineyards in this small appellation, but the majority of them share a common influence – the cooling effect that follows the Russian River inland from the Pacific coast. Over the years, we've been fortunate to work with many great vineyards that span a diverse and varied view into a region that many would call the heartland of California Pinot Noir. No matter the vintage, there are often fresh red fruit characteristics, a recognizably full mouthfeel, and lively texture to the wines from the area - a common thread to the components of this blend.

SONOMA COAST PINOT NOIR

The Sonoma Coast appellation overlaps with the Russian River Valley in many places and is similarly shaped by the ocean. Local geology can be complex here, a result of being located at the intersection of two tectonic plates. We find ourselves drawn to sites that are influenced by the Pacific Ocean. The vineyards we source from lie in both the southern portion of the appellation and in the northern coastal zone. In the southern area, the Petaluma Wind Gap and the San Pablo Bay drive cooler temperatures and provide us with deep flavors and richly textured wines. The vineyards from the coastal reaches contribute savory and spice characteristics that we love as well as great structure and poise. Together, they form a distinct Sonoma Coast wine with enticing aromas of ripe blue fruit, layered acidity, and a powerful finish.

SINGLE VINEYARD GROWER SERIES

MT. CARMEL STA. RITA HILLS PINOT NOIR

Planted in 1989, on steep and rugged land surrounding an abandoned Carmelite monastery, Mt. Carmel was one of the first vineyards planted in the Sta. Rita Hills appellation. The site consists of six blocks totaling 24 acres, planted to a variety of own-rooted, heritage Chardonnay and Pinot Noir clones. Primarily dry-farmed, Mt. Carmel is extremely cool and windy. This, combined with exceptional Botella clay and Diatomaceous earth soils, and elevations of 800-1000 feet above sea level, produces a wine that is as intricate and dynamic as it is alluring.

KEEFER RANCH RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY PINOT NOIR

Planted in 1996 and featuring an array of elite clones, the dry-farmed Keefer Ranch is located in the coolest part of the Russian River Valley, where wind and fog lengthen the growing season and produce one of our most refined and graceful Pinot Noirs. Rolling hills harbor some of the coolest conditions within the site - fog, breezes, and fresh nights help vines balance their ripening with warm afternoon sunshine. A heralded property, Keefer has been in the Kosta Browne family since 2005, and we are drawn to the terrific natural acidity and elegance in the grapes we farm from this vineyard.

GAP'S CROWN VINEYARD SONOMA COAST PINOT NOIR

Gap's Crown is considered by many to be one of the best representations of what the Petaluma Gap AVA, the southern component of Sonoma Coast, is all about. Since we began working with this site in 2006, its meteoric rise into the pantheon of great Pinot Noir vineyards has been extraordinary. Sweeping vineyards with dramatic elevation changes and clonal variety define this exemplary site. Each year, this Pinot Noir dazzles with its stunning purity and lush flavors. From its mouthwatering tension to its seductive, flowing flavors of blueberry, blackberry pie, and honeycomb, this is classic Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir.
