POINTS

Outstanding; a wine of superior character and style

“Big, ripe and broad-textured, with concentrated dark plum, kirsch and dark currant flavors that offer graphite and slate accents. The juicy finish features dark chocolate and Asian spice notes.”

“Outstanding wines. These wines are outstanding for their type and are worth the extra effort to seeking out.”

“The most expensive in the lineup, the 2016 Pinot Noir Ten Degrees has a deeper color as well as a rich, nicely structured, concentrates style. Black cherries, scorched earth, graphite, and a touch of forest floor all give way to a medium to full-bodied Pinot Noir that has terrific mid-palate density, building tannins, and outstanding length. It’s going to evolve gracefully for 8-10 years.”
