2016 ANDERSON VALLEY PINOT NOIR CERISE VINEYARD

94
POINTS

“Outstanding. A wine of remarkable personality and breed that is well worth seeking out”

“A gorgeous wine of tremendous promise, the 2016 Pinot Noir Cerise Vineyard is Kosta Browne's first effort from their recently acquired Anderson Valley site. The flavors are deep and boldly sketched in this enticing Pinot Noir.”

“Outstanding”

“This is a beautiful and subtle pinot with floral and ripe strawberry aromas that follow through to a medium to full body. Fine tannins and a refined finish. Very polished and inviting. A new wine from here.”

“Outstanding wines. These wines are outstanding for their type and are worth the extra effort to seeking out.”

“From Anderson Valley, the 2016 Pinot Noir Cerise Vineyard has a touch of old-world charm in its savory, complex bouquet of dried earth, forest floor, leafy herbs, and dried red fruits. Complex, weightless, and elegant on the palate, it’s a great example of the style of the 2016 vintage and will continue drinking nicely for at least 7-8 years.”
