2018 Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

Points

An outstanding wine of exceptional complexity and character. In short, these are terrific wines

“Coming about 30% to 40% from Gap’s Crown this vintage, the 2018 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast has very pretty, sweet berry fruits—strawberries, raspberries, rhubarb—with accents of tea leaves, dried flowers and fragrant earth. The medium-bodied palate has a great dichotomy of classic Pinot Noir fruit and amaro-like bitterness, juicy, soft and sexy with a long, spicy finish. Lovely!”

Outstanding wines. These wines are outstanding for their type and are worth the extra effort to seeking out.

“Brought up mostly in French oak, with a small amount in concrete, the 2018 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast has that classic Sonoma Coast pretty red fruit-driven style as well as subtle white flower, spice, and even a kiss of minerality. It’s beautifully balanced and medium-bodied, with an elegant, ethereal style that still has solid structure. It will drink well for a decade.”
