“The 2019 Pinot Noir Mt. Carmel Vineyard is appealingly rustic, featuring scents of dried red cherries and cranberries, resinous herbs, charcuterie and iron. The medium-bodied palate is chalky and fresh with earthy, spicy fruits and a long, nuanced finish.”

“From a windswept ridge on the northern end of the Sta. Rita hills, this is not a shy wine. It’s driven by brisk red fruits—raspberry and red cherry—and by a weighty rasher of oak. There’s no denying its power and layering, or the full range of its flavors, but it needs years to integrate.”
